A Fabulous Day at Hyde Park!

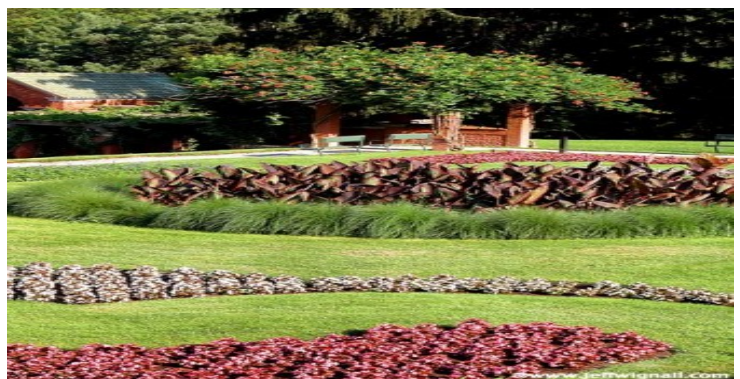

Friday September 17, 2010

This day trip begins at the famous Culinary Institute of America, the world's premier culinary college! Here you will enjoy a first class 3 course luncheon. A tour of the Institute is also an option!

Next you will enjoy a magnificent guided tour of FDR's Home. This is a fascinating experience which you will take you back in time! From there we move on to a self guided tour of the Presidential Museum and Library which offers the chance for intriguing discoveries!

Hyde Park is full of unbelievable scenery which offers wonderful photo opportunities!
Captivating and relaxing, this is a day trip you do not want to miss!
